

Bernalillo Co. commissioners introduce resolution to help fund new hotel

Commissioners are hoping the hotel will draw in tourists and locals. The hotel will feature entertainment and local art that tourists can purchase. Room rates are expected to be under $100.

Developers said they're still in the design phase for Albuquerque, but are planning to include a bistro, bar and indoor pool. The hotel is expected to have nearly 100 rooms.

The Bernalillo County Commission will have a final vote on the bonds in April.

If approved, developers said construction will begin in June and open in January 2021.
